

CONTENTS

Preface		11
Chapter
1. Prehistory of the Northwest Coast	Roy L. Carlson	13
2. Form in Northwest Coast Art	Bill Holm	33
3. The World is as Sharp as a Knife: Meaning in Northern Northwest Coast Art	Wilson Duff	47
4. Productivity and its Constraints: A Coast Salish Case	Wayne Suttles	67
5. Styles of Coastal Rock Art	Doris Lundy	89
6. Prehistoric Art of the Northern Northwest Coast	George MacDonald	99
7. Prehistoric Art of the Central Coast of British Columbia	Roy L. Carlson	122
8. Prehistoric Art of the Lower Fraser Region	Charles E. Borden	131
9. Prehistoric Mobile Art from the Mid-Fraser and Thompson River Areas	Arnoud Stryd	167
10. An Introduction to Ozette Art	Richard Daugherty and Janet Friedman	183
11. Change and Continuity in Northwest Coast Art	Roy L. Carlson	199
References		207
Credits and Acknowledgements		214

